

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, October 1. 1719.

London, October 1.

Yesterday came in the Mail from France of Saturday.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 7. Naples, September 5.

THE Spaniards who were taken Prisoners in the Castles of Maragriffone and Castellaccio, being 200 in Number, have been carried to Reggio. Letters from Messina advise, that on the 20th past the Trenches were opened before the Citadel: On the 21st the Besiegers finished a Work on the Right of the Palace, to cover their great Battery; on the 22d they established a Communication with the Trenches; on the 23d they made another near the Chapel Sta. Croce, extending to the Harbour, and made there a Battery for Mortars: On the 24th, a Line of Communication was drawn from the Trenches by the Magazines to the Harbour, and finished on the 25th, notwithstanding the great Fire of the Besieged, who are throwing from their Mortars abundance of Stones into the Trenches. By these Works the landing of the Provision and Ammunition, which are carried thither by Sea, is made more easy. On the 26th, the Approaches were extended on the Right to the Shore, in order the more to streighten the Citadel. On the 27th, the Besiegers finished a Battery of 24 Cannon, which began to play the same Day. The Marquis de Lede had left his Camp, and was within 2 Leagues of Messina.

Rome, Sept. 12. The Wood near Ostia having been set on Fire by an unknown Accident, it burnt for several Days; nor could the Flames be extinguished but by a great Rain, after the greater Part of the Wood had been consumed, to the great Loss of several private Persons, but particularly to the Bishop of Porto, who has a Revenue assigned upon it for the Support of his Table. Sig. Mezzabarba is at present in Retirement, to perform his Spiritual Exercises, in Preparation for his Voyage to China, whither he is to go with the Title of Patriarch of Alexandria. It is advised by Letters from that Country, that the Abbot Sidotti died in Japan of the Sufferings he endured in Prison. He was a Sicilian by Birth, and had been Auditor to the late Cardinal Ferrari, in whose House he acquired such Sentiments of Piety, that he resolved to follow the Cardinal de Tournon when the Pope sent him to China. After the Cardinal's Death, when the Missionaries were obliged to depart that Country, he took the Resolution to go over to Japan, notwithstanding the evident Danger to which he exposed himself, by reason of the Prohibitions against receiving or transporting any Foreigners, particularly Christians. He was no sooner arrived there, but he was seized and condemned to Death; but upon some extraordinary Signs which the Japanese observed, instead of putting him to Death, as was resolved, they delivered him to the Governour of the Province, from which Time till his Death nothing has been heard of him.

Venice, Sept. 16. It is advised from Dalmatia, that the Turkish Commissary has received the Answer which he was expecting from the Ottoman Court, relating to the Difficulties which had arisen about the settling of the Limits. That Answer was directed to the Bashaw of Bosnia, with full Power for him to give proper Instructions and Orders to the Commissary, in case new Incidents should happen which might retard the Conclusion of that Affair. Accordingly the Commissary is set out, to confer with the said Bashaw, and General Mocenigo is preparing to return to Muschi, to meet him there. Some Advices from Constantinople say, the Turkish Land-Forces quartered along the Danube, and in the adjoining Parts, have not received any Orders for returning into Asia and Egypt, from whence they have been drawn; and that it was not doubted they were to winter in those Quarters, where they have been compleated with numerous Recruits. The Turkish Squadron which has been cruising in the Archipelago to observe the Privateers of the Christians, tians, and which served for transporting Troops and Ammunition to several Places of the Morea, Negropont and Candia, is still at Sea; the greater Part of the rest of their Shipping has been laid up.

Paris, Oct. 7. On the 3d Instant the King went to see the Dutcheſs de Ventadour, and complimented her on Account of her Recovery.

On the 30th paſt, Sig. Cornelio Bentivoglio, the Pope's Nuncio in Ordinary, had Audience of Leave of Madame at St. Cloud, being conducted by M. de Marpré, Introducer of the Ambaſſadors to the Duke of Orleans. He was received with the uſual Ceremonies. After the Audience he was re-conducted by the ſame Introducer, who had received him at his Houſe, in Madame's Coach.

Meffire Rolland Francis de Querhoen de Coetenſao, Biſhop of Avranches, died in this City on the 2d Instant, in the 56th Year of his Age.

Paris, Oct. 7. In an Arrêt of the Council of State dated September 19, it is ſet forth, that whereas by the Arrêt of the 22d of November 1718, the Duties on Butter and Cheeſe, imported from abroad, were reduced to two thirds, till the 1ſt of April 1719, and the Duties on the ſame of the Produce of the Kingdom, to one half till the 1ſt of October 1719; but the Motives of the ſaid Arrêt being at this time become ſtronger by the great Drought of this Year; his Maſteſty for the Relief of the People takes off two thirds of the Duties (the uſual Tolls excepted) on Butter and Cheeſe, either of Foreign or Home Produce, till the 1ſt of October 1720.
